Of the PAST

of this store we will say but little.

It is now history. Every one knows what we have done, of our mistakes, perhaps, of the successes we have achieved.

Your satisfaction has been our unswerving aim and if we have failed you in any way, come today and tell us where, when, and how.

A pleasing promptness in making you satisfied will meet you more than half way.

Of the PRESENT

of this store you can best judge for us.

Are we meeting with your approval? Are we giving you satisfactory merchandise at prices that are right? Are we serving you in the best manner possible?

Your satisfaction is our ambition—your approval our sincerest desire.

Your opinion of our store service and merchandise values will always receive our most earnest consideration.

Of the FUTURE

you will like to hear, because it means a bigger and better store for you.

We are going to be even more watchful of your needs, more fully cognizant of the fact that our continued growth depends upon you and our every effort—our entire energy will be turned toward making this store the store where your best interests are ever forward—both in value and in service.

Our talks with you through our advertisements will in the future as in the past adhere strictly to the truth. You will be well repaid by reading every one.

Exclusive agency, Barre Drug company, Depot Square Drug store.

"Making a Six-Ton Cheese." A remarkable picture showing in detail the construction of the world's largest cheese. When this mammoth sweetmeat was successfully constructed recently by Mr. Nicholas Simon, of Appleton, Wis., it proved to be an object of world-wide interest. Some idea of its magnitude may be had when one considers that over seventy-tons of milk, 330 pounds of cheese salt, and thirty-one pounds of rennet were used to make this cheese weigh six tons and over. The milk came from 8,000 pure-bred Holstein and Guernsey cows, through the agency of some 12,000 farmers. The cheese is over eight feet in diameter and is valued at $7,500. Forty expert cheesemakers were employed in its making. It's at Dreamland.

There will be a special communication of Clan Gordon, No. 35, E. and A. M., Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Work, F. C. degree. Per order W. M.

Three reels of new pictures are shown at the opera house to-night, among them being "The Conversion of Saint Anthony," a beautiful Italian film; a great western drama, entitled "A Tale of the Foothills," and a comedy picture showing Mutt and Jeff and the Newsboys. Both acts of vaudeville are excellent. The Davis Bros. in a high-class musical act and Barrett & Lane in singing and yodeling complete a first-class program.

The program of vaudeville offered at the Pavilion last night proved to be exceptionally good. The Golden Vons presented an excellent singing act, which they finish in a very pretty and unique manner. After doing the first part of their act in a street scene, the stage is darkened for an instant and when the lights come on again the lady is seen seated in a swing, the ropes of which are decorated with foliage and illuminated with colored lights; a mass of golden streamers extend from the flies to the stage. In this unique and very pretty setting, the act sung their finishing number, a swing song. Both are gifted with excellent voices and they scored a hit at every show. Melvin and Thatcher, "the baseball fans," furnished the laughs for the show. Their material is all new and is delivered in fine shape. Their jokes on local baseball players (they touch 'em all up a little) while not malicious, were very funny and seemed to please the audience greatly. For the feature picture to-day and to-morrow the management has secured the great Selig animal production entitled "Lost in the Jungle." The picture is a succession of thrills from start to finish and deals with the adventures of a young girl (Kathlyn Williams), who is lost in the jungle. She has numerous adventures with wild animals, is attacked by a leopard which she kills with her hunting knife, and is finally rescued by a pet elephant which has stamped and finds her badly injured in the jungle. A delightful love story runs through the picture, making it one of the strongest picture productions of the year.

CORRECT SHOES

This shoe store represents good shoe service as distinguished from mere shoe selling.

GOOD SHOE SERVICE

means the furnishing of just the correct shoe suited to a particular requirement.

Merely to make a sale is not satisfaction to us—and merely to buy a pair of shoes is by no means certain to mean satisfaction to you.

We are able to guarantee good service—in every sense and every meaning—because we are sure of our own intentions and sure of the quality of our shoes. May we not hope that you will test our sincerity and our judgment the next time you purchase shoes?
